"Talent that'll blow you away... Their vocals are powerful, their melodies are pitch-perfect -- and, yes, their family harmonies are on point." – The Boot

(New York, NY) The Burney Sisters, Americana-pop duo comprised of 10 and 13 year-old siblings Emma and Olivia Burney, have released the new EP, Where We Stand, today, September 28th, 2018, via Gaslight Studios STL.

The Burney Sisters have progressed from covering songs by their favorite artists such as The Avett Brothers, Cowboy Junkies and First Aid Kit, to writing and performing their own material. Primarily playing ukulele, elder sister Olivia wrote the bulk of the material on 2017's debut EP, Running Away, and multi-instrumentalist Emma has recently begun contributing to the composition and arrangement of The Burney Sisters' songs as she expands her instrumental arsenal to include guitar, bass, banjo, keys and fiddle.

On the day of Where We Stand's release, September 28th, the band will appear at The Roots n Blues n BBQ Music Festival alongside such luminaries as The Avett Brothers, Lake Street Dive and more. They'll next be performing on November 2nd at Rose Music Hall (Columbia, MO) at the Gaslight Studios Showcase, also featuring Elliott Pearson & The Passing Lane.
